33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A
14th & 15th November 2020

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; Ps 127; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30

This Sunday St. Finbar's Parish Community would like to warmly welcome Father Joseph Lam, our new Parish Priest, to our Parish and wish him all the best.

Sunday 15th November 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A	7.30am Mass 9.30am Mass 11.00am Baptisms 6.00pm Youth Mass 7.00pm "The Lounge" Senior Youth Group	Dear Friends, "Gruss Gott" ("Greetings in the Lord") – this salute is a daily routine in Bavaria (Germany) where I grew up as an infant. The greeting expresses our optimism and hope in God 'who is ever ancient and yet ever new' Saint Augustine once said in his monumental work "Confessions". Perhaps, you have heard of Augustine of Hippo (354-430 CE) who lived in very tumultuous world. When Augustine lay dying in Hippo, Augustine's concerns were not only on intellectual battles with heretics, but also for the physical safety of the local citizens, because Hippo was then besieged by an army of Vandals who were a Germanic people from the area south of the Baltic Sea. Yet Augustine never lost his faith the goodness of God. So, he wrote with great confidence: 'From this hen upon earth there is no escape, save through the grace of the Saviour Christ, our God and Lord.' (The City of God, XXII, 22). As we are approaching the end of the liturgical year, let us pause for a reflective moment. Our present global situation is filled with calamities. The pandemic has caused pains to many families and individuals. Places of worship have been closed or put under restrictions. Dissension, division, and violence seem to govern the thoughts and actions of political parties, including the "parties" in our Church. It appears that the hope in human goodness has vanished, let alone the hope in God. What about then the question Jesus addressed to his followers: 'However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?' (Luke 18:8). Faith is journey of hope in the goodness of God. Let us journey together as a Faith community. I would like to echo the wise and inspiring words of Vatican II: 'The joys and the hopes, the griefs and the anxieties of the men of this age, especially those who are poor or in any way afflicted, these are the joys and hopes, the griefs and anxieties of the followers of Christ. Indeed, nothing genuinely human fails to raise an echo in their hearts. For theirs is a community composed of men. United in Christ, they are led by the Holy Spirit in their journey to the Kingdom of their Father and they have welcomed the news of salvation which is meant for every man. That is why this community realizes that it is truly linked with mankind and its history by the deepest of bonds.' (Gaudium et Spes, no. 1) Thank you for the opportunity to walk and to share with you the Faith and Hope in Christ... Fr. Joseph Lam

SUNDAY BAPTISMS:

The Parish joyfully announces the Baptism of Jacob Vincent Johnson and Vincent Wolfe Morson who are going to be Baptised this Sunday and warmly welcomes them into our Faith Community.

ST. FINBAR'S PARISH NEWS

Gospel Reflection

This week's gospel is generally used as an encouragement to make the most of the gifts and skills that the listeners possess. It is rarely placed in its context as part of the full Ch 25 lesson about the time of waiting and preparation for the coming of the Lord and the Christian life. Again, the story is presented as a glimpse into the right order of things in the realised Kingdom. A very wealthy master entrusts his considerable assets to his servants to manage in his absence. The three servants were allocated money, 'each in proportion to his ability'. The emphasis of the parable is on what each servant did with the funds they were allotted. They were charged with managing the money in the place of their master; acting in their master's place to further develop his wealth. Like all of Jesus' parables, this one has a sting in the tail. Although the third servant has done nothing illegal or corrupt, he is very harshly dealt with. His crime is laziness! He was given a great opportunity to demonstrate his abilities and yet he shied away and returned to his master exactly what had been entrusted to him, unimproved. This parable is used to shock the audience out of complacency. They cannot rely solely on the promised return of the Lord, they must continue to act on Jesus' message and work to bring about the Kingdom in their own lives. Those who fail to act, leaving everything to the work of God, are as bad as the lazy servant who failed to grasp an extraordinary opportunity.

Your talent is
Gods gift to you
What you do with it is your gift

WORK SITE: Please do not enter the work site which is being established near the church for the building of the Columbarium. This could compromise your safety and possibly that of the bricklayers.

PARISH HAPPENINGS THIS WEEK

- ◆ We welcome Fr Joe as he settles in and takes up residence as our new Parish Priest. Please introduce yourselves and your families to him after Mass and make him instantly feel part of our Christian community. He is having to work hard on his first weekend with four Masses, Baptisms and Youth Group. Next week he will meet with members of the Parish Advisory Council and the Parish Finance Committee. Later in the week he will visit the school to meet all the staff and students, and then later again he will meet with the Liturgy Committee!
- ◆ Long time parishioner Marie Hurley turned 90 years of age during the week. She received a Papal Blessing for all her good work. I am sure we all want to wish her a very happy birthday and good health.
- ◆ The next TIMEOUT TUESDAY gathering will be held next Tuesday, 17th November at 10am. This will be the last one for 2020, and you are all invited to enjoy a Christmas spirit! There will be door prizes and Christmas items for sale, and of course a delicious Christmas Morning Tea. Blessings to all.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE RECENTLY DECEASED:

Mikaela Au, Chiqui Trujillo (Carl Moll's brother in law), Tricia McQuade (Jan Smith's cousin), Jeanette Rogers (Martin Rogers' mother), Agnes (Pauline) Auckett, Michael Taylor, Dunata Ryan, Rita Cloran and Maureen Hobbs.
