Ezekiel 17:22-24; Ps 91; 2 Corinthians 5:6-10; Mark 4:26-34

FR JOE'S MUSINGS

Dear Friends,

When I was appointed to St Finbars, I was told that my main responsibility is to lead the parish and to let it grow. I replied that it is not me who facilitates the growth. Rather, it is God and his divine grace and word that enable the progress of people's faith. God has already planted the seed of faith in us through our baptism. So, the seed itself contains the grace and everything we need to grow in faith. Hence, I see my role not as the facilitator, but as an assistant, helping parishioners to unfold their gifts and talents for the benefit of all. I also would like to invite all parishioners to be co-responsible so that we all can detect and make best use of our God-given gifts and talents.

This Sunday's gospel is an invitation to all to do just that. Mark 4:26-34 is about those who understand God's word and who act responsibly. Mark compares our role with the role of a farmer who scatters seed on the ground. As if a person should scatter seed: When a farmer plants seed, and it grows by night, when he / she sees the seed sprouted in the morning, he / she has just worked as a partner with God. The farmer has done what he / she could do – plant the seed; and God has done what only He can do: grow the seed.

The seed is provided by God. The farmer needs to scatter it where the best soil is so that the seed can yield much harvest. This means two things: Firstly, we assist each other in the discovery of our talents and gifts. Secondly, we need to allow each of us to flourish with our talents and gifts.

How exactly the seed grows is a mystery to the farmer. Though it grows by a process he / she cannot see nor fully account for, he / she has faith in the growing process. So, it is with the Kingdom of God: we work in partnership with God, yet the real work is left up to Him – we trust in a process we cannot see nor fully account for.

The harvest has come – the Gospel of Mark continues: Just as a field's crop may be unnoticed when first planted, but can't be missed when mature, so it is with the Kingdom of God. It has small beginnings, and its root may be small, but when God develops the work, it cannot be missed. Reflecting on the NT story of the Ten Talents in Mt 25:14-30, Pope Francis said: "The person in the parable represents Jesus, we are the servants, and the talents are the inheritance that the Lord entrusts to us. What is the inheritance? His Word, the Eucharist, faith in the Heavenly Father, his forgiveness..., in other words, so many things, his most precious treasures. This is the inheritance that He entrusts to us, not only to safeguard, but to make fruitful! While in common usage the term "talent" indicates a pronounced individual quality, for example talent in music, in sport, and so on, in the parable, talent represent the riches of the Lord, which He entrusts to us so that we make them bear fruit."

So, we need to reflect on these questions: God has given us many gifts and talents! And what have we done with them? Whom have we "infected" with our faith? How many people have we encouraged with our hope? How much love have we shared with our neighbour?

These are questions that will do us good to ask ourselves.
