FR JOE'S MUSINGS

ST. FINBAR'S PARISH COMMUNITY - A GREAT PLACE TO BE A PART OF

Hello fellow parishioners,

On this very special day, the feast day of St Finbar and the 110th anniversary of the founding of our parish, Fr Joe would like to introduce a series of reflections written by parishioners, expressing how they see our parish community, what it means to them individually to be part of this community, what are the positives, and what more could we do to reach out to those in need, to help our local environment and to increase the bond of community among the parishioners.

I happened to be nearby and got tasked with writing the first one of what Fr Joe hopes will be an ongoing series. It was a big ask, and to add a bit more pressure, he asked that I write my piece within 24 hours!

When I think back to 1975 when I first moved here, my participation in the parish was fairly minimal, mostly just attending Mass when required. Over the years I found that if I volunteered to do a bit for the parish, I felt more involved with the community, and I gradually got to know people. This got me even more involved, and I started to really feel that I belonged. It culminated in me being invited to attend some courses at the (then) Institute for Mission and to reassess my spiritual life and discern the things that were important to me in my life. Eventually this involvement with the parish led to me completing my Masters degree in

Theological Studies at the University of Notre Dame Australia. On a personal level, I feel that St Finbar's parishioners are a very caring lot and will do everything they can when a fellow parishioner is in need. This makes me very comfortable as one of my goals in life is to serve The Lord firstly, and then to serve my fellow people. Nearly every week there is a group meeting with a view to serving others, whether it be cleaning our church for us, visiting the sick and housebound, caring for each other at Men's Breakfasts, Timeout Tuesdays, Thursday Dancers, Friday Bowlers, helping plan for our future development or just being generous in their financial support of the parish.

Recently, under Fr Joe's stewardship, I have noticed more diversity in our activities. There are more social events (not my strong point!), our lawns and gardens have never looked better as we become more aware of the importance of our environment, there are more adult education opportunities, and I think more parishioners are becoming more involved in parish activities. We can always do more, or do things better. From my point of view, I would like the church to be a quite zone for a full 15 minutes before every Mass so that I (and others) can pray and prepare well for Mass. If you need to talk, do it before entering the church please!

Over to you now: Fr Joe would like one parishioner submission to publish each week, and it should be 400 - 450 words. Please email it the secretary@stfinbars.org.au. It would be needed by the Wednesday of that week.

May God continue to bless our parish.

Peter McMahon

As God's stewards, we're entrusted to use the gifts we are given wisely for the greater good of our family, our faith community and God's kingdom. A gift in your Will is an enduring way

A gift in your Will is an enduring way to give thanks to God and share your blessings beyond your lifetime. During Include A Charity Week, we invite you – after providing for your loved ones – to consider a gift in your Will to our Parish, or Parramatta Catholic Foundation, the Clergy Support Foundation or one of our Diocesan Catholic ministries. Even the most modest gift will significantly advance our Church's works of faith, hope and charity for future generations. THE WISDOM OF AGE' BOOK REFLECTIONS ON GROWING OLD IN THE BLUE MOUNTAINS

This inspiring collection of reflections is written by 24 people (including the contributions of Marie Hurley, Vince Dobson and Pat Barret), all aged eighty years or older and living in the Blue Mountains of New South Wales. They seek to foster constructive conversation about ageing and how to grow old well. They acknowledge the importance of listening to the voices of those who are making the journey into later life, and their observations refute many of the negative stereotypes that surround ageing prevalent in our society. These reflections are authentic and courageous in opening topics that are sometimes hard to speak of publicly. They include sources of meaning, faith and spirituality, creativity, social engagement as well as grief, loss, dying and death. The reflections embrace examples of the wonderful ways in which individuals can overcome the hard things of life, leading to a new way of being. The contributors to The Wisdom of Age are pioneers in gerontology, telling the world what it is really like to continue to live well into later life. Please send Order and Postal Address to contact@bmert.com.au Invoice with our EFT bank details will be enclosed with Order RRP $25. Email: contact@bmert.com.au Website: www.bmert.com.au
