Father John ponders.....

"Mastery does not come from dabbling. We have to be prepared to pay the price. We need to have the sustained enthusiasm that motivates us to give our best." -- Eknath Easwaran

Our quotation today gives us a precise encouragement, at the beginning of Lent, to treat our Lenten resolutions with the respect with which they are due. Not taking on too much, nor doing little or nothing are not worthy of us as human beings being called to greater things. We need to become aware of our earthly limitations, and taking on too much is likely to cause failure within a couple of days. A positive attitude to our Lenten practices can give enormous benefit to our success. Even how we refer to them is a positive stepping stone to help us reap the rewards in our spiritual/moral lives. Calling them "penances" seems to infer something imposed from the outside with which we may not be entirely comfortable.

Addressing them as "resolutions" gives a positive slant whereby we acknowledge them as freely chosen by ourselves, and gladly undertaken to increase an awareness of our imperfection and to reach out, with the support of God, to slowly achieve the glory which He continually wishes to bestow on us.

But we have to be committed to the path we have chosen, this Lent or any other Lent. "Mastery does not come from dabbling". Starting with one resolution and continually changing it day by day cannot give the success we seek. Homing in on one's weakness which we wish to overcome cannot be addressed if we are continually changing our goals because what we experience seems to be too hard. "We have to be prepared to pay the price." The price is sticking to our resolution no matter how hard the struggle is. Otherwise our journey to God, of which Lent is a significant part, will end up merely lukewarm rather than the fire of enthusiasm "which motivates us to give our best". I'm sure most of us would acknowledge from past experience that arriving at Easter Sunday with only less than a half-hearted attempt at Lenten resolutions does leave a sour taste in our mouths. Hardly the right disposition to celebrate the Resurrection praises of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. As is so often the case we remain dissatisfied with ourselves and we need to keep picking ourselves up and dusting ourselves down.

To avoid this it is best to choose something easy, definite and manageable within the time span of six weeks. Take the resolution gently and bolster ourselves with daily successes which can give a wonderful experience of achievement. Then the feast of Resurrection can be ours without doubt, knowing our Saviour has helped us through. To Him be the glory!

LENTEN REFLECTIONS FROM ST FINBAR'S EARTHCARE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE GROUP

Lent is a season of repentance and growth— a great time to reflect on the values that Jesus teaches us through the Gospels. It is a time when we can begin to make significant changes in our lives.

Each year since 1940 the Australian Bishops have released a major Social Justice Statement. The 2025/2026 Statement is entitled Signs of Hope on the Edge <http://socialjustice.catholic.org.au/2025/08/06/signs-of-hope-on-the-edge-social-justice-statement-2025-2026/>. This Statement focuses on the intersection of homelessness and mental ill-health. Through personal stories it explores the complexity of both these issues and calls us to move beyond indifference to actively engage with those on the margins. We are called not to walk past, but to walk with. Not to avert our eyes, but to notice with love. Not to offer only charity, but to foster relationships of dignity and belonging—every person has a name, a story, and an unshakeable dignity as a child of God.

Each weekend during Lent we will share an idea/insight from this Statement upon which we can ponder and reflect throughout the coming week.

MEN'S BREAKFAST - SATURDAY 7TH MARCH 2026 AT 7.30AM IN THE CHURCH HALL

The Parish is holding another Men's Breakfast as an opportunity for parishioners to meet and get to know one another. This invitation is open to all male parishioners and any of their sons, grandsons, neighbours and friends. For catering purposes we will need to confirm numbers by Sunday 1st of March. Please add your name to the list on the Warden's table.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO OUR NEW IT MINISTRY COORDINATORS

The parish is delighted to extend a heartfelt thank you to Joseph and Michelle Wilson, who have generously volunteered to take on the role of IT Ministry Coordinator following our recent call for assistance.

We also once again thank Patrick (Pat) Watson for his many years of dedicated service and for his continued support as he helps guide Joseph and Michelle into their new roles.

Please join us in praying for Joseph and Michelle as they begin this ministry, and in thanking them for their generous spirit and service to our parish.
